Policy Document for Scholarship for Students

St. Ann's college for women is a minority institute managed by the Society of St. Ann Luzern a Christian religious charitable minority society. It gives broader space in their policy to respond to the needs of time. The society also abides by the policy given by the CBCI (Catholic Bishops Conference of India).

Objective:

- To reach out to the socio economically poor students who aspire to pursue their education.
- To avail the opportunities to students who are talented, clever, and creative in thinking.
- To assist the students to bring out the best and to reach their ambitions and dreams.
- To support the minority students as per the CBCI policy.

The St. Ann's society giving life to its vision of serving the needy has made a general policy of giving 10% of total income of the institution to use it for the poor and marginalized (ll GC of SAS pg 38(31-35) extends support to students by the educational projects from the society. From the resources available in the institute, the following policies are made:

- The institution shall avail the institutional scholarship to student who deserve namely students who are orphans have single parent.
- Student who are promising yet socio economically poor namely students who are orphans, have both the parents, having chronically ill parents, single parent students.
- The institution shall also support with partial scholarship to the candidate who are not eligible for any govt scholarship unable to pursue their studies.
- The institute shall avail to all the catholic minority students as per the guidelines given in Catholic Bishops Conference of India (CBCI Policy)

Concluding remarks

At St. Ann's College For Women, we aim to enlighten the underprivileged women through education, vocational training and atmosphere of equality with common band. Your contribution has helped us essentially to meet and achieve our intention. Your generosity has reached as an aid to young girls with weak economic background, nurtured by single parents or belonging to remote part of the state. It has given them a new hope to work hard study well and renovate their future and be an example for the society. On behalf of the students and the management I would like to render a heartfelt gratitude for your support and helpfulness it has been a true inspiration of service towards mankind.
