STUDENT GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL POLICY

St. Ann's College for Women has created a mechanism for redressal of students' grievances related to academic and non-academic matters, such as assessment, victimization, attendance, charging of fees, conducting of examinations, harassment by colleague students or teachers etc.

Objectives of Grievance Redressal Committee

The purpose of the grievance redressal committees is to ensure a speedy response to and accountability of all concerned to the students of St. Ann's College.

The objectives of the Grievance Redressal Committee are as under:-

- Maintaining harmonious student – Student and faculty – Student relationship
- Creating an environment in which students can freely express their grievances without fear of discrimination or victimization
- Counseling students to refrain provoking of their fellow students against faculty and staff of the college.
- Although the anti-ragging committees are in place, the student may if she so wishes bring to the notice any incident of ragging through these committee shall ensure speedy action and protection of the student.

Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited in and outside the college and should be brought to the notice of the management immediately.

Jurisdiction of the Committee

The committee shall deal grievances received in writing about any of the following:

- Academic Matters – Issues related to teaching process, marks, grade cards and other examination related matter, Transfer Certificate etc.
- Financial Matter – relating to dues and payments
- Administration Matters – Infrastructure related, food, sanitation, transport or victimization
- Harassment and Ragging

Grievance Redressal Committee

The Principal of the college shall constitute one Grievance Redressal Committee:-

- i) The College Level Grievance Redressal Committee

The composition of the College level Grievance Redressal committee is as under:

- Principal – Chairman
- Lecturer Head In charge
- Members:
 - Concerned Lecturers
