3.3 Extension Activities

3.3.1 Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the last five years.

Response:

- The College promotes social responsibilities and good citizenship roles among the students with continuous interface with the community through NSS and NCC programs and extension activities.
- The College makes all the students to understand the importance of providing their services in rural areas. The institute has NSS for conducting regular extension activities. All the students and faculty of the institution takes up several co-curricular and extension activities to promote social responsibility among the students such as:
 - Campaigning on health & hygiene
 - Pulse polio immunization programs
 - Cash less transaction campaign
 - Swach Bharat complain
 - Anti-plastic and environmental protection
 - Anti Curreption campains
 - Blood Donation

- The NSS has a strong hold of 300 NSS Volunteers. It has 3 NSS Units and program officers who carry out the motto of St Ann's institution "SENSITIVITY, ALERTNESS AND SERVICE" in the uplift of the weaker sections of the society. The institution conducted several Medical camps, Adult literacy, Child labour, Environmental pollution, Swatch Bharat, Health and Hygiene, Massive Tree Plantation, SHGs, Education for women, Anti-dowry system, Sexual harassment etc. in collaboration with Government and NGOs. Students raised funds for the benefit of victims of Natural Calamities. The NSS Units take the initiative of celebrating important days like the NSS day, Aids day, National Literacy Day, Elders day etc. The volunteers of NSS/NCC effectively participated and helped for the success of all the programs.
- The Institute has an excellent rapport with the neighbourhood community. Institute also has very good networking with community stakeholders like Gram Panchayat, Community Based Organizations, NGOs and Community Leaders. All the activities are organized in consultation and with active participation of community for "Sustained Development".

This institution-neighborhood network helps:

- Students, teachers & community to share ideas, knowledge, resources and experiences to create healthier communities.
- Community and teacher interaction, which provides opportunity for the student to learn various methods in research and development of knowledge.
- Providing opportunity to utilize community as a source of teaching -learning material for faculty and students.

The NCC Unit of St. Ann's College for Women, which was launched in 1994 is running under the leadership of NCC officer Lt. P. Sivaranjini . The Unit has 100 cadets and is excelling in all the national and social service activities like Blood Donation, Tree Plantation, AIDS Awareness Rallies, Traffic Control, Visit to Mentally Retarded schools & old age homes etc.

- The Institution ensures participation of all the students in extension activities through the following strategies.
- The institution has NSS and NCC units which actively involves in programs like social work, health and hygiene awareness, AIDs awareness, environmental awareness campaigns etc.

As part of co-curricular and extracurricular activities of the students, the institution organizes the following extension activities in rural areas.

- Sensitizing the community on health and health awareness promotion activities, child marriage etc.
- Adoption of villages and wards for sustainable and holistic development.
- Awareness programs on all national health programs.

- Educating rural people about health hazards of alcoholism, tobacco chewing, smoking, AIDs etc.
