Day's Observed

• International Non-Violence Day

Department of History observed as International Non-Violence Day, On oct 2nd which is also observed as Gandhi Jayanti. BA students actively in an elocution on the topics peace, tolerance, and nonviolence. It was a wonderful opportunity for students to express their thoughts and ideas on promoting harmony and understanding in society.

• Unity Day

On 31st October, Dept of History observed "Unity Day" in remembrance of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and his significant contributions to India's unity and union. It's a day to honor his vision and efforts in bringing together the diverse states and regions of India.

• UNO Day

On 24 October, the Dept of History Observed "UNO Day" as a symbol of hope for global unity. It's a significant observance that highlights the importance of international cooperation and collaboration.

• Vehicle Free Day

As the 15th of October is Sunday, for this month "Vehicle Free Day" was observed on 16th October. This initiative aimed to promote sustainable transportation and reduce carbon emissions on campus. The college campus was free from vehicle traffic, creating a safer and more eco-friendly environment.

• International Girl Child Day

A. Adhi Lakshmi (Dept of Hindi), organised a seminar on the eve of "International Girl Child Day" to aware the students regarding the importance of nutrition in maintaining good health and preventing chronic diseases. We also explored strategies for incorporating nutritious food into our daily lives.

Indian National English Day

Indian National English Day seminar at our institution was a highly productive and insightful event.

Dr.Manjula acted as the resource person, the workshop focused on enhancing vocabulary, literature, and grammar skills. The first part of the seminar emphasized the intrinsic beauty of the English language and provided valuable insights into essay writing skills, as well as important topics to consider. The information was presented concisely, accompanied by visual aids, ensuring easy comprehension. The second part of the seminar incorporated engaging activities, such as a spell bee recitation, which effectively motivated and enthused the students. Dr. Manjula's appreciation and rewards further enhanced the cheerful atmosphere.

Overall, the seminar provided a comprehensive coverage of essay and paragraph presentation, narrative styles, and specific rules. It underscored the significance of clear and concise writing, employing eloquent language to effectively express ideas. Narrative styles, including Gustav's pyramid, were discussed, encompassing exposition, rising action, falling action, and resolution or conclusion. Specific rules pertaining to each topic were highlighted, supported by relevant examples and scenarios. Additionally, the seminar explored other writing styles, such as descriptive, expository, and persuasive writing.

Also, the quiz competition was organized by the English department on the eve of International English Day, offered an exceptional opportunity to enhance language skills and expand knowledge of English literature and language.

Purple Day

Purple is the color of the Domestic Violence Awareness Ribbon. Purple became a symbol of the strength of women during the early 1900s with the women's suffrage movement. Then, in October of 1981, National Coalition Against Domestic Violence observed "Day of Unity" where a majority of the participants also wore purple. This sequence of events helped lead to the adoption of purple for domestic violence awareness. You can show your support for survivors and raise awareness with us this month by wearing purple anytime, but especially on October 19.
