Community Outreach Programme 2023-2024:

1. Title of the Event: Handloom Saree Walk

Date: August 6, 2023

Organizing Department: NCC, St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students- 20

Detail Description of the Report

On August 6, 2023, a Handloom Saree Walk was organized at RK Beach, Visakhapatnam, with the enthusiastic participation of 20 NCC cadets from St. Ann's College for Women. The event aimed to highlight the significance of handloom sarees, promoting the rich cultural heritage and craftsmanship of these traditional garments. The cadets actively contributed to the success of the initiative by showcasing the elegance and beauty of handloom sarees, raising awareness about the importance of supporting traditional weaving techniques and the preservation of Indian textiles. The walk also served as a cultural celebration, emphasizing the pride in India's handloom industry.

4. STUDENT TRAINING AND NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT (STAND) PROGRAMME-2023-2024:

Introduction:

On 15th February 2024, St. Ann's College for Women, in collaboration with the Don Bosco Navajeevan Organization, organized a significant community outreach program to distribute uniforms and t-shirts to underprivileged children residing in the Tatichetha Palem and Kanchara Palem slums. The event was made possible by funds raised through the college's Food Festival and Peacock Day Dance Show, where students and staff actively participated in organizing and contributing. The initiative aimed at improving the quality of life for these children, ensuring they have access to basic necessities and promoting their overall well-being.

Purpose:

The purpose of this event was to make a tangible difference in the lives of children from marginalized communities by providing them with free uniforms and t-shirts, which are essential for their education and personal dignity. Additionally, the event aimed at fostering a sense of social responsibility and compassion among the students and staff of St. Ann's College by directly engaging in community service.

Objectives:

1. To support underprivileged children by providing them with clothing, ensuring they are better equipped for school and daily activities.
2. To raise awareness about the importance of health, hygiene, and education among children living in marginalized communities.
3. To foster a spirit of giving and compassion within the college community, promoting active participation in social responsibility projects.
4. To empower children by addressing their basic needs and encouraging them to pursue education with confidence and dignity.

Report:

On 15th February 2024, a heartwarming event was held at Tatichetha Palem and Kanchara Palem slums, where St. Ann's College for Women, in collaboration with the Don Bosco Navajeevan Organization, distributed uniforms and t-shirts to underprivileged children. The initiative was made possible by the funds raised through the college's food festival and the Peacock Day Dance Show, two successful fundraising activities organized by the college community.

The event saw the active participation of Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari, the principal of St. Ann's College, along with Fr. Arul Das and Fr. Kalyan Babu, who all played key roles in guiding the event's success. Additionally, staff and students from the college, including Anasuya Devi (Department of Political Science) and SK Vallika (Department of Chemistry), also took part in the distribution process.

The primary focus of the event was on educating and addressing the children about the importance of health, hygiene, food, and nutrition. Both Anasuya Devi and SK Valisha took the opportunity to speak to the children, stressing the significance of maintaining cleanliness, adopting good hygiene practices, and understanding the importance of proper nutrition for their overall well-being. The initiative was well-received by the children and their families, and it provided not only material support but also moral encouragement.

The entire event was a success thanks to the collaborative efforts of the management, staff, and students of St. Ann's College, as well as the invaluable contribution of Don Bosco Navajeevan Organization. By providing these children with necessary uniforms and t-shirts, the program not only aimed at addressing their immediate needs but also inspired hope for a better future.

Overall, this event reflected the strong commitment of St. Ann's College to social responsibility and community welfare, reaffirming the values of empathy, compassion, and service to society. The program was a perfect example of how collective efforts can bring about positive change in society, especially in the lives of those who need it the most.

8. Title of the Event: Awareness Program on Food and Nutrition for School children
Date: March 13, 2024
Organizing Department: NSS Units, St. Ann's College for Women
Number of Participants: Students- 7

Detail Description of the Report:

On March 13, 2024, Unit-1 NSS students of St. Ann's College for Women organized an awareness program on food and nutrition for schoolchildren at Kranti Nagar. The initiative aimed to educate young students about the importance of balanced diets, proper nutrition, and healthy eating habits for their overall well-being and development. The students from St. Ann's College led interactive sessions, using visuals and engaging activities to make the information accessible and interesting for the children. Topics covered included the nutritional value of different food groups, the importance of hydration, and tips for making healthy food choices. This program not only raised awareness about health and nutrition among the young learners but also highlighted the commitment of the NSS units to promoting healthy lifestyles and social responsibility in the community.

12. Title of the Event: Dr. B. R. Ambedkar 133rd Jayanthi Celebration
Date: April 14, 2024
Organizing Department: Branch Library, Malkapuram & NSS
Number of Participants: Students- 300

Detail Description of the Report:

On April 14, 2024, the Branch Library, Malkapuram, organized the 133rd Jayanthi celebration of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar to honor the life and legacy of the eminent social reformer and architect of the Indian Constitution. EPS Bhagya Lakshmi acted as the chief resource person for the event. In her address, EPS Bhagya Lakshmi spoke about Dr. Ambedkar's tireless efforts toward social justice, equality, and his pivotal role in drafting the Indian Constitution. She highlighted his contributions to uplifting marginalized communities and empowering women. The event also included discussions on Dr. Ambedkar's vision for an inclusive and democratic India. The celebration was attended by local community members, NSS Volunteers, students, and staff, who were inspired by Dr. Ambedkar's principles of equality and social reform. The event served as a reminder of the importance of his ideals in shaping modern Indian society.

13. Title of the Event: Voter Education Rally

Date: April 6, 2024

Organizing Department: St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students- 100

Detail Description of the Report:

On April 6, 2024, Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari, the Principal of St. Ann's College for Women, led a voter education rally at the college. The event aimed to raise awareness about Systematic Voter Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) among students and the local community. The rally included interactive sessions, presentations, and discussions focused on the significance of voter registration, making informed choices, and participating actively in the electoral process. Students and staff were encouraged to understand their rights and responsibilities as voters in a democratic society. At the end of the rally, participants took a pledge to uphold democratic values and ensure their involvement in future elections. The event was a significant step toward promoting civic engagement and electoral awareness, encouraging students to contribute to the democratic process.

Brochure:

The brochure is a dark green rectangular poster. At the top left is a circular logo with a rainbow. At the top right is a gold circular logo with the letter 'A' and the word 'ACCREDITED'. The text at the top reads: 'ST ANN'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN' in white, followed by '(ACCREDITED BY NAAC WITH "A" GRADE)' and 'AFFILIATED TO ANJANA UNIVERSITY W.C. MD: CH (S) 202/791, ST. AN-16-899'. The main title 'RALLY ON VOTERS EDUCATION' is written in large, bold, yellow and white letters. Below it, the date 'APRIL 6, 2024' is written in purple. At the bottom, the website 'HTTPS://STANNSCOLLEGEVIZAG.ORG/ACTIVITIES/' is written in white.

Date: June 21, 2024
Organizing Department: St. Ann's College for Women
Number of Participants: Students- 100

Detail Description of the Report:

On June 21, 2024, St. Ann's College for Women observed International Yoga Day with great enthusiasm. The event saw NCC cadets, NSS volunteers, and other students actively participating in a yoga session. The focus of the day was to promote physical and mental well-being through yoga. Mrs. A. Sandhya Rani, Mrs. A. Adi Lakshmi, and Mrs. Sivaranjani served as trainers for the session, guiding the students through various yoga asanas aimed at improving flexibility, strength, and relaxation. The students practiced different asanas, emphasizing breath control and mindfulness. The observance was not only a celebration of yoga as a means of maintaining a healthy lifestyle but also an opportunity to encourage the practice of yoga for mental peace and overall well-being. The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment, as participants felt rejuvenated and motivated to incorporate yoga into their daily routines.

3. Title of the Event: World Population Day Celebration

Date: July 11, 2023

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

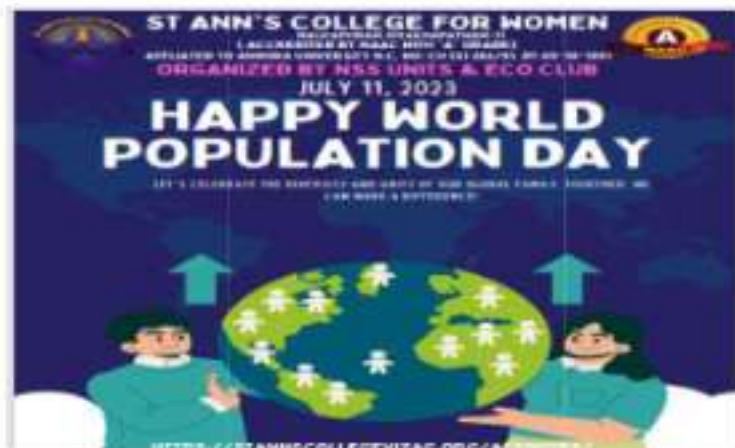

Number of Participants: Students - 25

Detail Description of the Report:

On July 11, 2023, the NSS Units and Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women observed World Population Day with an engaging and educational program held in the college library. The event aimed to raise awareness about population-related challenges and highlight the importance of sustainable development in the context of global population growth. The program featured an enlightening session led by guest speaker EPS Shagya Lakshmi, who discussed pressing issues such as resource management, population control measures, and the role of education in shaping informed decision-making. Eco Club members and NSS volunteers presented creative posters and infographics illustrating the impact of population growth on the environment and ecosystems. An interactive debate was organized, where students expressed their perspectives on balancing population growth with economic and environmental sustainability. Additionally, participants took part in a quiz competition to test their knowledge of demographic trends and global initiatives addressing population issues.

The event concluded with a call to action, urging students to advocate for gender equality, family planning, and sustainable practices. The collaborative efforts of the NSS Units and Eco Club underscored the college's commitment to nurturing socially responsible individuals equipped to address the challenges of an evolving world.

4. Title of the Event: World Plastic Free Day Celebration

Date: July 13, 2023

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 50

Detail Description of the Report:

On July 13, 2023, St. Ann's College for Women observed World Plastic Free Day with an inspiring initiative to make the college campus a plastic-free zone. This significant step was made possible through the collective efforts of the NSS Units, Eco Club members, staff, and students, who worked together to promote a sustainable and environmentally friendly campus. The program began with an awareness drive led by EPS Bhagya Lakshmi, who emphasized the harmful effects of plastic on the environment and the urgent need to adopt sustainable alternatives. Students and staff participated in a "Plastic Collection Drive," gathering single-use plastics from the campus for proper disposal. Simultaneously, reusable alternatives such as cloth bags and steel bottles were distributed to encourage eco-friendly habits.

Interactive sessions and poster presentations by Eco Club members highlighted innovative strategies to reduce plastic dependency. NSS volunteers organized a flash mob in the college courtyard, creatively spreading the message of environmental conservation through performance art. A pledge ceremony was conducted where participants vowed to eliminate single-use plastics from their lives and contribute to creating a healthier planet. The event culminated with the ceremonial planting of trees in the college garden, symbolizing the commitment to a greener future. This initiative not only achieved its goal of making the campus plastic-free but also instilled a sense of responsibility among the college community to adopt sustainable practices in their daily lives.

5. Title of the Event: Meri Mati Mera Desh Programme

Date: August 9, 2023

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 46

Detail Description of the Report:

On August 9, 2023, the NSS Units of St. Ann's College for Women organized a meaningful event under the theme "Meri Mati Mera Desh" (MM & MD). This program was aimed at fostering a sense of patriotism, respect for the nation's soil, and environmental stewardship. The event was graced by the chief guest, Sri Gajjari Srinivas Rao, an esteemed Army officer, and presided over by Sister Gioele, the college representative. The program began with a welcome address by the NSS coordinators, who emphasized the importance of connecting with the land and honoring those who serve to protect it. A ceremonial planting of saplings marked the opening activity, symbolizing the deep bond between humanity and nature. Eco Club members and NSS volunteers took the lead in this initiative, demonstrating their dedication to environmental sustainability. Chief guest Sri Gajjari Srinivas Rao was felicitated during the program, recognizing his service to the nation. He shared inspiring words about the values of discipline, duty, and love for the country, motivating students to contribute to nation-building. The event also featured a pledge-taking ceremony where participants vowed to uphold the ideals of environmental protection and national pride. A short cultural program, including patriotic songs and poetry recitals, added to the spirit of the day.

The initiative brought together program officers, Eco Club members, and volunteers in a collaborative effort to celebrate the essence of "Meri Mati Mera Desh", leaving a lasting impact on the participants and reinforcing their commitment to a sustainable and patriotic future.

6. Title of the Event: Ozone Day Celebrations

Date: September 16, 2023

Organized by: Department of Chemistry, NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 150

Detail Description of the Report:

On September 16, 2023, the Department of Chemistry and the NSS Units of St. Ann's College for Women jointly organized a seminar on the topic of "Ozone", in observance of Ozone Day. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of the ozone layer and promote environmental conservation among students and faculty members. The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. Sister Prema Kumari, the esteemed Principal of St. Ann's College, who graced the occasion as the chief guest. In her opening remarks, she emphasized the critical role of the ozone layer in protecting life on Earth from harmful ultraviolet radiation and called for concerted efforts to mitigate environmental damage.

Prominent speakers, including faculty from the Chemistry Department and guest experts, delivered insightful presentations. Topics covered included the formation and depletion of the ozone layer, the adverse effects of ozone layer depletion on ecosystems and human health, and the global efforts under the Montreal Protocol to phase out ozone-depleting substances. The NSS volunteers and Eco Club members played an active role in organizing the event, ensuring its success. A poster-making competition was also conducted, allowing students to creatively express their ideas on ozone protection and environmental sustainability. The program concluded with an interactive session where participants discussed innovative ideas to contribute to ozone layer preservation and reduce individual carbon footprints. This seminar served as an excellent platform to educate and engage students on environmental issues, fostering a sense of responsibility and action toward a sustainable future. The collaborative effort between the Department of Chemistry and the NSS Units underlined the college's commitment to environmental advocacy and academic enrichment.

7. Title of the Event: Swachhata Hi Seva Program

Date: October 1, 2023

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 100

Detail Description of the Report:

On October 1st, 2023, the NSS Units of St. Ann's College for Women, along with members of the Eco Club, undertook a meaningful Shramadaa activity at the college library. This initiative was conducted as part of the nationwide Swachhata Hi Seva (Cleanliness is Service) program, emphasizing the importance of cleanliness and environmental responsibility. The event began with an address by the NSS Program Officers and Eco Club coordinators, who highlighted the significance of collective efforts in maintaining clean and organized spaces. The participants were divided into teams, each assigned specific tasks within the library premises, such as organizing bookshelves, cleaning reading spaces, and ensuring a dust-free and welcoming environment.

Students and staff alike actively participated in the one-hour session, working diligently to enhance the library's ambiance. The activity served as a reminder of the value of voluntary service and its impact on the community. As part of the program, the volunteers were also encouraged to adopt practices that promote a clean and sustainable environment beyond the campus. These included minimizing the use of plastic, proper waste segregation, and fostering a culture of cleanliness in daily life. The Shramadaa activity not only contributed to the physical upkeep of the library but also instilled a sense of pride and ownership among the participants. It underscored the commitment of St. Ann's College to fostering a cleaner and more sustainable environment through collaborative and proactive initiatives.

3. Title of the Event: Environmental conservation and sustainability

Date: November 15, 2023

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 100

Detail Description of the Report:

The EVS lecturer of St. Ann's College has taken significant steps toward environmental conservation and sustainability. With active collaboration from enthusiastic students, 50 trees were planted in and around the campus, enhancing the greenery and improving the ecosystem. In addition, a proactive campaign to reduce plastic waste was initiated by promoting the use of steel bottles among staff and students, encouraging eco-conscious habits. These initiatives not only underscore the college's dedication to creating an environmentally sustainable campus but also inspire a culture of responsibility and awareness among the college community. Such efforts serve as a practical example of how small, collective actions can lead to meaningful environmental impact.

10. Title of the Event: Plantation Programme

Date: 7th February 2024

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 20

Detail Description of the Report:

On 7th February 2024, the NSS Units of St. Ann's College for Women, in collaboration with other committees such as the Eco Club and Environmental Awareness Cell, organized a vibrant plantation programme. This initiative aimed to emphasize the importance of environmental conservation and sustainability. Under the guidance of the NSS Program Officers and the EVS lecturer, students and staff actively participated in planting a variety of saplings around the campus. The program commenced with an inspiring address by the college principal, Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari, who highlighted the critical role of trees in combating climate change and maintaining ecological balance.

During the event, participants not only planted saplings but also pledged to nurture them, ensuring their survival and growth. The involvement of Eco Club members brought additional energy, as they led awareness sessions on the significance of afforestation and reducing carbon footprints. This plantation drive not only enhanced the campus greenery but also served as a hands-on learning experience for students, instilling a sense of responsibility toward environmental stewardship. It was a meaningful step towards creating a sustainable and eco-friendly campus.

11. Title of the Event: No Vehicle Day

Date: 15th February 2024

Organized by: NSS Units & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 30

Detail Description of the Report

On the 15th of this month, St. Ann's College for Women proudly observed a successful No Vehicle Day, further solidifying its commitment to sustainability and environmental conservation. Despite facing transportation challenges, students, faculty, and staff wholeheartedly embraced eco-friendly alternatives such as walking, cycling, and carpooling to reduce the carbon footprint for the day. The initiative, coordinated by the NSS Units and the Eco Club, aimed to raise awareness about the adverse effects of vehicular emissions on air quality and to encourage a shift toward sustainable commuting practices. Informative posters and placards placed around the campus underscored the importance of reducing air pollution and conserving energy.

The day also included a brief interactive session led by the EVS lecturer, where participants discussed the environmental and health benefits of adopting greener transportation modes. Many shared their experiences and committed to incorporating eco-conscious habits into their daily lives. The collective effort of the college community not only demonstrated the feasibility of sustainable practices but also fostered a stronger sense of camaraderie and responsibility toward the environment. The initiative served as a powerful reminder that small, mindful actions can significantly contribute to a healthier and cleaner planet.

12. Title of the Event: World Earth Day

Date: 22nd April, 2024

Organized by: Department of Botany & Eco Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Number of Participants: Students - 14

Detail Description of the Report:

On April 22nd, the Department of Biological Sciences at St. Ann's College for Women commemorated World Earth Day with vibrant and meaningful activities. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and Eco Club representatives, showcasing the college's commitment to environmental preservation and sustainability. The celebrations began with a plantation program on the college campus, where students and faculty collaborated to plant saplings, symbolizing a step towards a greener and healthier planet. This initiative reinforced the importance of tree plantation as a key measure for combating climate change and restoring ecosystems.

The event also included interactive discussions and presentations focused on conservation strategies and sustainable practices. Students shared creative ideas and practical approaches for minimizing waste, conserving water, and adopting renewable energy sources. The discussions highlighted the urgent need to preserve Earth's resources to ensure a sustainable future for upcoming generations. An informative display of posters and charts created by students further enriched the event, offering insights into global environmental challenges and solutions. The day concluded with participants taking a pledge to actively contribute to the well-being of the planet through eco-friendly actions in their daily lives. The observance of World Earth Day was a testament to the Department's dedication to fostering environmental awareness and nurturing a sense of responsibility among students to safeguard the planet.

17. Title of the Event: World Paper Day

Date: 12th July, 2024

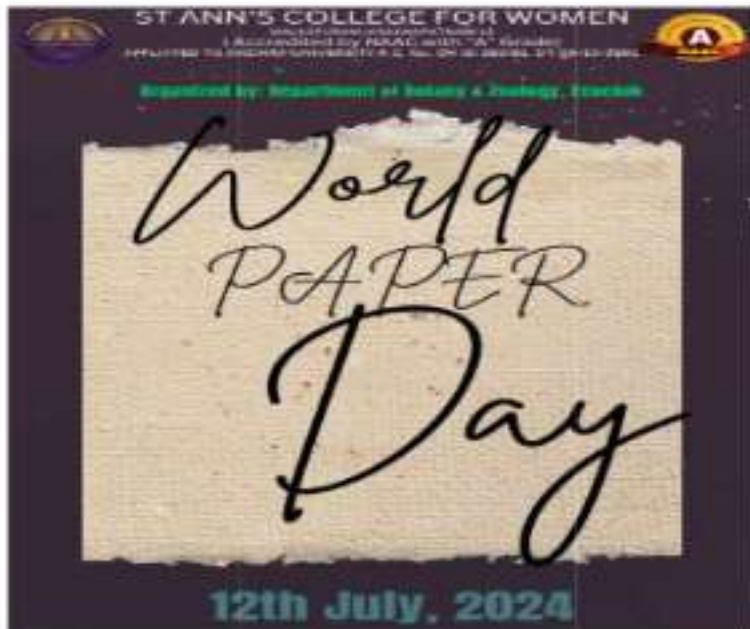

Organized by: Department of Botany & Zoology, Ecoclub

Number of Participants: Staff & Students – 50

Detail Description of the Report:

On July 12th, 2024, the Departments of Botany, Zoology, and the Eco Club at St. Ann's College organized a significant celebration of World Paper Bag Day on the college premises. Students, staff, and Eco Club members actively participated in preparing eco-friendly paper bags, demonstrating their commitment to sustainability. The event highlighted the importance of using paper bags instead of plastic, offering a practical solution to reduce plastic waste. Participants learned about the environmental impact of plastic and were encouraged to adopt more sustainable practices in their daily lives. The initiative successfully raised awareness about the crucial need to protect the environment through small, conscious actions.

2. Title of the Event: National Youth Day

Date: 12th January, 2024

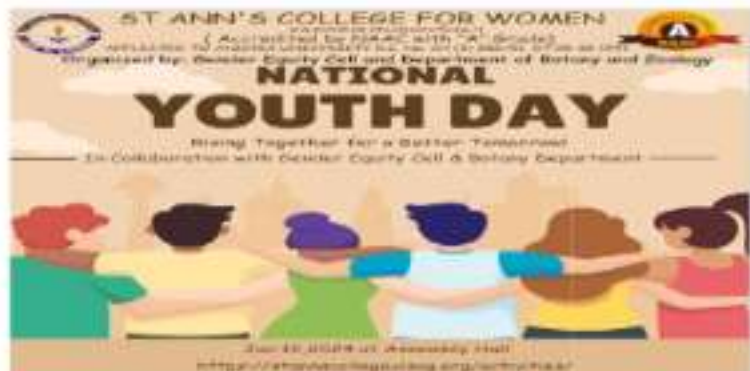

Organized by: Gender Equity Cell and Department of Botany and Zoology

Number of Participants: Staff & Students – 15

Detail Description of the Report:

On National Youth Day, the Department of Botany and Zoology, along with the Gender Equity Cell of St. Ann's College, organized an inspiring event to celebrate the contributions of youth to science and society, while also promoting gender equality. The event featured a thought-provoking talk by Rajitha, a 3rd-year student, who spoke passionately about the role of youth in advancing science, drawing wisdom from the teachings of Swami Vivekananda. The discussion also emphasized the importance of gender equity in shaping a progressive society, with contributions from the Gender Equity Cell highlighting how both men and women can contribute equally to scientific innovation and societal development. The event underscored the power of youth to create change and the need for equality in every field.

3. Title of the Event: National Girl Child Day Celebrations

Date: 14th January, 2024

Organized by: Gender Equity Cell and NSS

Number of Participants: Staff & Students – 50

Detail Description of the Report:

On National Girl Child Day, the NSS Unit of St. Ann's College organized an awareness program aimed at addressing the challenges faced by the girl child and promoting gender equality. The event featured insightful talks by key speakers, including Y. Anasuya Devi from the Department of Political Science, A. Raja, Coordinator of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee and Head of the Department of English, as well as Anushta from the Department of Statistics and Sumitha from the Department of Mathematics. The speakers highlighted various issues related to the welfare of the girl child, with A. Raja discussing the critical topics of "good touch, bad touch," and emphasizing the importance of self-security for women.

The initiative was guided by Miss EPS Bhagya Lakshmi from the Department of Political Science. The program successfully raised awareness about the rights, challenges, and empowerment of the girl child. Additionally, during the event, NSS volunteer R. Ujwala was felicitated for her participation in the National Youth Festival of Nasik, and was appreciated by Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari for her active involvement in such initiatives. The observance underscored the college's commitment to creating a safer and more equal environment for young girls.

Brochure:

The brochure features a purple background with a central illustration of three young girls in traditional Indian attire (sarees) dancing joyfully. At the top, the college's name 'ST ANN'S COLLEGE FOR WOMEN' is written in bold, with its address 'PALAKURUPALU, VISAKHAPATNAM-11' and accreditation details '(Accredited by NAAC with "A" Grade)' and 'AFFILIATED TO ANHURA UNIVERSITY & C. H- CH (3) 868/91 DT.25.10.1981'. Below this, it states 'Organized by: Gender Equity Cell and NSS'. The main title 'National Day Of The GIRL CHILD' is prominently displayed in a blue banner. At the bottom, the date '14th January, 2024' and the time '8:00 AM - 1:00 PM' are provided, along with the website URL 'https://stannscollgevizag.org/activities/'. 12. Title of the Event: World Consumer Day

Date: 9th & 27th July, 2024

Organized by: Gender Equity Cell & NSS

Number of Participants: Students – 3

Detail Description of the Report

On July 9th, the Consumer Rights Council (CRC), in collaboration with the Gender Equity Cell, organized a Consumer Rights Awareness Program at AVK School. The session empowered students with knowledge about their rights and responsibilities as consumers. Topics such as consumer safety, responsible waste management, and the dangers of false advertisements were discussed. The interactive nature of the session encouraged students to ask questions and actively participate, inspiring them to make informed and smart consumer choices. School authorities praised the initiative and expressed interest in future collaborations.

On July 27th, another Consumer Rights Awareness Program was held at TSR & TBK Degree College, Srinagar, organized by CRC in association with the Gender Equity Cell. Raje Akkashoyina, Head of the Department of English, served as one of the key speakers. She emphasized the importance of consumer rights and responsibilities, urging students to adopt mindful habits and promote awareness among peers. The program was well-received, fostering a culture of responsible consumer behavior and highlighting the importance of informed decision-making.

1. Title of the Event: Eye Camp
Organized By: NSS Units and Red Ribbon Club
Date: October 16th and 17th, 2023
Number of Participants: Students- 36

Detail Description of the Report:

St. Ann's College for Women, Visakhapatnam, in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club and NSS Units, organized a two-day Eye Camp on October 16th and 17th, 2023, within the college premises. The camp was held to raise awareness about eye health and provide essential eye care services to the college community. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Sirisha, who served as the chief guest, alongside the college principal, Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari, faculty members, and student volunteers. Expert staff from Sankar Foundation Eye Hospital offered their valuable services during the camp, conducting free eye check-ups and consultations. The camp witnessed active participation, with over 36 individuals benefiting from the initiative. Attendees included students, faculty, and administrative staff, who were provided with detailed insights on maintaining good eye health. The medical team also identified individuals requiring corrective measures and referred them for further treatment.

In addition to the medical services, the Red Ribbon Club and NSS volunteers organized an awareness session highlighting the importance of eye health and preventive care. Topics such as common eye ailments, early detection of eye issues, and maintaining proper hygiene were discussed. This initiative reflected St. Ann's College's dedication to community well-being and its proactive approach in promoting health awareness. The success of the event underscored the collaborative efforts of the NSS Units, Red Ribbon Club, and Sankar Foundation Eye Hospital in addressing a critical aspect of public health.

2. Title of the Event : AIDS Awareness Oath Program
Organized By: APSACS in collaboration with NSS Units
Date: October 20, 2023
Number of Participants: Students-15

Report on AIDS Awareness Oath Program:

On October 20, 2023, the NSS Program Officers (POs) and volunteers of St. Ann's College for Women participated in an AIDS Awareness Oath Program organized by Andhra Pradesh State AIDS Control Society (APSACS). The program aimed to educate participants about HIV/AIDS and emphasize the importance of combating stigma and misinformation surrounding the disease. During the event, NSS members took an AIDS Awareness Oath, pledging their commitment to spreading knowledge about HIV/AIDS prevention, encouraging safe practices, and supporting individuals affected by the condition. The oath underscored the role of youth in fostering a society free of discrimination and misconceptions regarding HIV/AIDS. The event included interactive discussions where APSACS representatives shared facts about HIV transmission, prevention methods, and the significance of timely testing and treatment. NSS Program Officers, including EPS Bhagya Lakshmi and Y. Anasuya Devi, played a key role in organizing and mobilizing volunteers for the event. The active involvement of the NSS team highlighted the college's dedication to community health and its commitment to social causes. The program successfully raised awareness among participants and strengthened their resolve to work towards a healthier and more informed society.

Organized By: Local Health Department in collaboration with Red Ribbon Club
Date: November 23, 2023
Venue: St. Ann's College for Women
Number of Participants: 350

Detail Description of the Event:

On November 23, 2023, ASHA workers from the local health department, in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club, organized a Hemoglobin Test Camp at St. Ann's College for Women. The initiative aimed to address the pressing issue of blood deficiency among women in India, promoting preventive healthcare practices. Students and staff actively participated in the camp, benefiting from free hemoglobin testing and personalized health advice. This collaboration reflects the joint effort of the college and healthcare authorities to foster awareness and prioritize women's health and well-being, making preventive care accessible to the community.

Brochure:

The brochure is a vertical rectangular poster with a dark red background. At the top, it features the college's name in English and Telugu, along with its accreditation by NAAC with an 'A' grade. The central text, in a large, bold, yellow font, reads 'Hemoglobin Test Camp for Women's Health Awareness'. Below this, the date 'November 23, 2023' is printed in a smaller yellow font. At the bottom, a URL is provided: <https://stannscollegevizag.org/activities/>. The brochure is framed by a thin white border.

5. Title of the Event: AIDS Awareness Program
Organized By: NSS Units, St. Ann's College for Women, VSP
Date: December 1, 2023
Venue: St. Ann's College for Women
Number of Participants: 300

Detail Description of the Event:

On World AIDS Day, December 1, 2023, the NSS units of St. Ann's College for Women organized an AIDS Awareness Program to educate students about the critical health issue of HIV/AIDS. Resource persons EP5 Bhagya Lakshmi, Y. Anasuya Devi, and N. Nadiya led the event, providing insightful discussions on the history, causes, prevention, and control of AIDS. The program emphasized the importance of awareness in combating stigma and fostering a supportive community for those affected by HIV/AIDS. With active participation from students, the initiative reflected the college's dedication to public health advocacy and education.

6. Title of the Event: AIDS Day

Organized By: NSS Units, Gender Equity Cell, Red Ribbon Club, and Departments of CBZ and BA

Date: December 1, 2023

Venue: Desire Society Home, Visakhapatnam

Number of Participants: 50

Detail Description of the Event:

In observance of World AIDS Day, the Red Ribbon Club, in collaboration with NSS Units, Gender Equity Cell, and the Departments of CBZ and BA, organized a heartfelt visit to the Desire Society Home. The delegation included G. Lalitha Reddy, Dr. Adishesu, and Lakshmi Thulasi, along with enthusiastic students from 1st, 2nd, and 3rd-year BSc (CBZ) and BA. During their visit, the group engaged meaningfully with the residents, spreading cheer and offering support. They distributed dry fruits, proteins powder, fruits, and sweets to enhance the well-being of the home's inhabitants. This initiative underscored the importance of empathy, care, and solidarity with individuals living with HIV/AIDS. This thoughtful activity, spearheaded by the Red Ribbon Club and other collaborators, showcased the college's commitment to raising awareness and addressing social health challenges while fostering a culture of kindness and community service among its students.

UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN PROGRAMME:

Title: Seminar on Women Reservation Bill

Date: 25th September 2023

Organised By: Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA)

Description:

On 25th September 2023, a seminar on the Women Reservation Bill was conducted under the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) by B.P. Raju, Assistant Professor of Economics. The session provided an insightful overview of the bill, its implications, and the crucial role it plays in enhancing gender equality in political representation. Students and faculty actively engaged in discussions, exploring the socio-economic impact of the bill and its relevance in empowering women. The seminar served as an informative platform, fostering awareness and promoting dialogue on gender inclusivity and legislative reforms. This event underscored the college's commitment to social responsibility and its alignment with the goals of UBA in creating awareness about key socio-political issues.

SCIENCE DAY CELEBRATIONS:

1. Title: World Science Day Celebration 2023

Date: 10th November 2023

Organised By: Departments of Chemistry and Microbiology

Description:

On 10th November 2023, World Science Day was celebrated at St. Ann's College for Women under the theme "Peace and Development." The Department of Chemistry organized a model and poster presentation on the topic "Green Chemistry and its Principles." Students showcased innovative ideas and effectively communicated the importance of sustainable practices in science. In a parallel initiative, students from the Department of Microbiology presented small plants to staff members, symbolizing a commitment to promoting greenery and environmental consciousness. This thoughtful gesture highlighted the integration of scientific awareness with ecological responsibility. The combined efforts of both departments created a meaningful and inspiring celebration, emphasizing the importance of science in fostering peace, development, and a greener future.

2. Title: National Science Day Celebration 2024

Date: 28th February 2024

Organised By: Science Club of St. Ann's College for Women

Description:

The Science Club of St. Ann's College for Women celebrated National Science Day on 28th February 2024 with great enthusiasm and vigor. The event was inaugurated by Sr. Geeta, the Correspondent, and Sr. Prema, the Principal of the Degree College. This special occasion featured a range of engaging activities, including a quiz competition and a poster presentation. Students actively participated in the events, displaying their scientific knowledge and creativity. The quiz competition tested their understanding of various scientific concepts, while the poster presentation provided a platform for students to express and communicate their innovative ideas visually. The involvement of Sr. Geeta and Sr. Prema highlighted the institution's dedication to fostering a love for science and promoting educational excellence. The celebration not only emphasized the importance of science in everyday life but also cultivated a deeper appreciation for scientific principles among students. This vibrant and intellectually stimulating event successfully created an environment of curiosity and learning, reflecting the Science Club's commitment to nurturing future scientific minds.
