INTRODUCTION

Service to Mankind is Service to God

Embracing a philosophy of service and support, St. Ann's Society seeks to guide and uplift those in need. This commitment to action led the management of St. Ann's College for Women to adopt a village in Visakhapatnam, providing essential aid such as financial, educational, clothing, and housing assistance. To further support these efforts, a proposal emerged from Principal Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari to organize Peacock Day on November 27th, a dance showcase event where students could demonstrate their creativity, artistic, and culinary skills. The event also featured a Food Fest, and colleges from Visakhapatnam participated in the district-level competition, with some parents of the students sponsoring the charity drive.

The event was open to students, family, and friends, and the cultural committee, along with the management and various committees, worked diligently to ensure its success. Through the collective efforts of everyone involved, Peacock Day was a triumphant display of service and commitment to those in need.

REPORT OF THE EVENT

St. Ann's Institutions recently hosted the Peacock Day Dance Extravaganza, a meticulously planned event that took three weeks to prepare. The event charged a Rs. 20/- entry fee and was divided into two sessions, with the first running from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and the second later in the day from 02:00 p.m. to 05:00 p.m. The first session's guests of honor were distinguished alumni Dr. Sanyasamma, Dr. K. Swati, and Mrs. Ch. Kondamma. Rev. Fr. Hirudaya Raj, Dr. K. Swati, and Mrs. Sournapudi Sridevi were the distinguished guests of the day and judged the competition. The guest for the afternoon session was Sr. Sandrina.

The event began with an opening remark from Mrs. P. Jayasri, the Master of Ceremony, followed by the lighting of the lamp to invoke God's presence for the day. Dr. Sr. Prema Kumari, the college's principal, briefed the audience on Peacock Day's purpose, emphasizing that it was a chance for students to showcase their talents while allowing parents to witness the show. Student president Ms. Jessica shared her thoughts about the program. After the speeches, the stage was set for the dancers to showcase their performances.

A total of 21 teams participated in the event, including five from other colleges. The performances included thematic dances such as Kerala, Rani Lakshmi Bai, Retro, Periods, Women Trafficking, Indian Army, and Women Empowerment, as well as folk, classical, semi-classical, and Western dances. The judges were impressed by the costumes, expressions, and performances of each team, with all performances lasting between three to five minutes.

During the dance extravaganza, the Media Committee, led by Mr. Srinu, displayed photographs of every event on the white screen of the events happening both inside and outside, including the food fest. The Food Fest was arranged by the Undergraduate students in the first session around the campus. Various committees such as Discipline, Examination, Board, Clean, and Green, etc., also swung into action, such as Registration, Ticket Collection and Distribution, Maintaining Law and Order, and cleanliness of the campus. Furthermore, they also collected the funds received from every food stall.

After every six or eight performances, the Guests of Honours delivered their inspiring messages, while students anchored the event. The dance extravaganza came to a close with Mrs. Sridevi and Rev. Fr. Hirudaya Raj praising the dancers and the institution for putting up a great show. Fr. Hirudaya Raj, a renowned dancer, also performed on the stage, further exciting the audience. The first session came to a successful close, with the audience left wanting more.

A vote of Thanks was given by Mrs. Y. Premalatha from the Department of English. She informed that a few parents sponsored Rs. 5000, Rs. 20000, and Rs. 1000/- for this event. The morning session ended with the National Anthem.

FEEDBACK - STUDENTS

Feedback of Peacock Day celebration
 My name is K. Anitha of 1st year B.Com (Regular Sem). I am very proud to be a student of St. Ann's College. Recently, our college celebrated Peacock Day on Nov 27. It included many dances. For this day the staff, students worked hard to make it successful. They were in dance, food stalls, entry tickets etc. The programme is for both B.Com and B.A. I want to thank students, timing of morning, and for being in it. In afternoon the women are also made show the 21 groups given their performance in morning. When the ticket enjoyed and some of groups performed afternoon. I want to thank students engaged. The college management given an opportunity to students that is to make their poster for the exhibition. No all the students invited their friends. They were in ticket and to enter into the campus. The programme venue is College Auditorium. It is very big and spacious and comfort with AC, many fans, lights with excellent facilities. Not only the dance but also have the refreshments in the form of food stalls. When the ticket students enjoying the programme in morning, the dance students kept the food stalls were from afternoon.

...the ticket students kept the food stalls. Students also enjoyed the programme. The exhibition was filled by students and visitors. The students enjoyed the food and felt very happy by watching all the performances. The programme which is conducted in some committees like Media, culture, organizing committees. They use 5 prizes for winning. The 1st, 2nd, 3rd and a consolation prize. The prize money for 1st prize is 500 and 2nd prize is 300 and 3rd prize is 200 and may also get at (B.Com). I am so happy for this. The main aim of this programme is to help the needy with the money of their contribution. In the management will spend for the welfare of needy areas 1,83,000 rupees with the contribution of Peacock Day. A village is taken to help the needy in that village like to give education to young ones and to provide basic necessities to that people in that particular village. Already in that particular college too. Even the benefits of Peacock Day. Even she visited some villages and she is going to help some of that and she complete responsibility of the people in that village.

...very honoured to give the feedback on the dance competition that was held on 27th November, 2023 in St. Ann's College for Women.
 According to my point of view the day went pretty well with all the dances and food stalls. The hardwork were seen from the participants performance. In reality the competition helped to find out the talent of everyone. The main thing I liked was the main aim of the competition to help the village by adopting them.
 We actually enjoyed a lot that day. I was also one of the participant with my team. We didn't win but still were happy and felt very good that we participated and contributed towards the helping hand.
 In future also if our college decide to plan something like this I and my classmates and friends will surely take part and will work hard to make a successful plan.
 Thank You

On 27/11/23, the Peacock Day Programme was held, where various forms of dance were performed. In the programme, I have enjoyed very much. On that day the students kept the food stalls where I ate lots of snacks. Not only students but also their parents also enjoyed together on Peacock Day. Even anchors of the Programme looked very beautiful and ran the programme smoothly. The lecturers and staffs welcomed the parents whole heartedly. I liked the idea of Peacock Day because it is selfless service towards the helping of slum areas or villagers. The success of the Programme on that day is like achievement on hardwork of college. I hope and wish that this Peacock Day should be conducted every year.
