TRIBUTE TO REVEREND FATHER WILHELM MEYER

On 12th September 2025, a series of engaging activities were organized to celebrate the birthday of Reverend Father Wilhelm Meyer, the founder of the Society of Sisters of St. Ann's. The event featured a variety of competitions including elocution, debate, essay writing, speaker extempore, quiz, and thanksgiving letter writing. These activities provided participants with a platform to express their thoughts, showcase their talents, and pay tribute to the visionary founder's enduring legacy. The program was marked by enthusiastic participation and heartfelt reflections, emphasizing the values and mission inspired by Reverend Father Meyer.

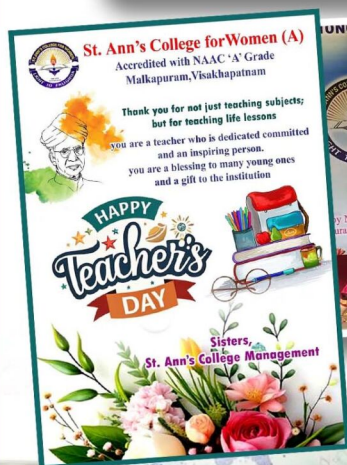

HEARTFELT CELEBRATIONS MARK TEACHERS' DAY

On 5th September 2025, vibrant Teachers' Day celebrations were held to honour the dedication and contributions of the teaching faculty. The programme, organized by the students, was a heartfelt tribute to their mentors, filled with gratitude, creativity, and joyful performances.

The event began with a warm welcome, followed by cultural performances, including songs, dances, and skits that highlighted the vital role of teachers in shaping young minds. Thoughtful speeches were delivered by students, expressing admiration for the patience, guidance, and commitment shown by their teachers.

Games and fun interactions added a lively touch to the celebration, strengthening the student-teacher bond. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, marking a memorable occasion that acknowledged the selfless service of educators in building a better future.

NATIONAL SUMMIT ON VIGILANCE VISION: PROTECTION WITH PURPOSE

On the eve of Vigilance Awareness Month, the Departments of English and Commerce, in collaboration with the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) and IQAC, organized a National Summit on Consumer Protection, Safety, and Ethical Practices titled “Vigilance Vision: Protection with Purpose.” The event took place on 27th September 2025 in the college auditorium, with the participation of over 1,200 students from St. Ann's College and nearby nursing colleges.

The summit was convened by Ms. Roja, Head of the Department of English, and co-convened by Ms. P. Lavanya, Head of the Department of Commerce.

Keynote speakers included:

- Dr. Shankarbrata Bagchi, Commissioner of Police, Visakhapatnam
- D.G. Thanuja, President, District Consumer Rights Commission
- Dr. Vikas Pandey, National President, Consumer Rights Council Bharat

The event focused on key themes such as vigilance and awareness, safety and anti-narcotics measures, grievance redress mechanisms, ethics and compliance, and technology for protection. The speakers stressed the importance of ethical responsibility, student rights, and institutional vigilance in academic spaces. The summit successfully encouraged awareness, accountability, and ethical practices, making it a significant part of the Vigilance Awareness Month observance.
